

Responsible Offshore Science Alliance
Advisory Council Meeting

Monday, November 23, 2020
9:00 to 12:00 ET

Register in advance for this meeting:

<https://cbuilding.zoom.us/j/99588834097>

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

- 8:45 Platform opens for signing on
- 9:00 Welcome, ROSA Co-Chairs and Executive Director
- 9:10 Fishery Science around Offshore Wind Science Updates
 - Recent procurements and introduction to requests for regional monitoring funding
 - Synthesis of the Science Workshop and Next Steps
 - NYSERDA State of the Science Workshop and Next Steps
- 9:20 Review of ROSA structure, roles and decision-making
- 9:30 Update on ROSA Research Advisors recruitment and role
- 9:40 ROSA Interim Fisheries Monitoring Guidance
 - Summary of process and key elements
 - Discussion and Next Steps
- 10:00 Fisheries Data Management
 - Who is collecting what, for what purposes and where it is managed?
 - Discussion of what's missing & how ROSA can help improve efficiency & coordination
 - Next Steps
- 10:55 Priority Setting for the Longer-Term
 - What is coming the Council's way in 2021 and how to move from broad areas of interest to specific research priorities?
 - Breakout Discussion: Given what is coming the ROSA Council's way, what might be a good process for prioritizing research to create a 3 to 5 year research agenda?
 - Report Back
- 11:40 Activities for 2021
 - Potential Activities for 2021
 - Next Steps
- 12:00 Adjourn